Anti-Clerical Clubs.

There is a broad and far-reaching movement on foot to express sympathy with and loyalty to the Pope under the present circumstances, and expressions of such sentiments are being received from churchmen all over the world, from cardinals down to the humblest priests. In Rome, however, the manifestations of sympathy size not unanimous for to-day the Anti-Clerical Clubs raised days aloft; to-night their buildings are fluminated, and they have issued manifestoes to celebrate what they term the triumph of civil liberty.
